

Build a Home

for Civil Rights in Our Community

The Board of Directors of the Civil Rights Institute of Inland Southern California and Wakeland Housing and Development Corporation cordially invite you to

A kickoff event to Lay the Foundation for the Civil Rights Institute of Inland Southern California the cornerstone of Mission Heritage Plaza, a visionary new development that will bring new affordable housing, offices for the Fair Housing Council of Riverside County, and historical resources to downtown Riverside

Monday, October 23, 2017 • 10 a.m. to noon 3933 Mission Inn Avenue
(the site of the future Civil Rights Institute)
Downtown Riverside

Featured Speakers:
State Senator Richard Roth
Assemblyman José Medina
Mayor Rusty Bailey

Meet our directors

Meet our development team

Refreshments will be served

Meet our
donors

www.inlandcivilrights.org

Architect's Rendering
Mission Heritage Plaza

Mission Heritage Plaza Project Partners

For more information: (951) 682-6581 x 101